

Cookie Policy

Last Updated: November 2, 2023

This Cookie Policy explains how Hertz ("we," "us," or "our") uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on the Hertz website. By using our website, you consent to the use of cookies as described in this policy.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They are commonly used to make websites work more efficiently and to provide information to website owners. Cookies can be either "session cookies" (which are deleted when you close your browser) or "persistent cookies" (which remain on your device for a specified period or until manually deleted).

How We Use Cookies

Hertz uses cookies for the following purposes:

Essential Cookies: These cookies are necessary for the proper functioning of the website. They enable you to navigate the website and use its features.

Performance and Analytics Cookies: We use these cookies to collect information about how visitors use our website. This information helps us improve our website's performance and user experience.

Functionality Cookies: These cookies allow our website to remember choices you make (such as language preferences) and provide enhanced, personalized features.

Third-party Cookies: We may also use cookies provided by third-party partners, such as social media platforms, for advertising and analytics.

Cookie Preferences

You can manage your cookie preferences by adjusting your browser settings. Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through their settings. Please note that if you disable cookies, some website features may not work correctly.
